

The Bandstand Presents

The Band Plays On!

Stay-at-Home Play-at-Home Program

With the threat of COVID-19 continuing to put Community Concert Bands at risk for months to come, The Bandstand is introducing, THE BAND PLAYS ON!

a Stay-at-Home Play-at-Home Program

Continue playing at home, with a folder full of new and familiar music. Enjoy preparing a full concert worth of music, and playing along with recorded versions of all the pieces in your concert folder.

Wherever you are in the world, you can participate!

Members will receive...

- 1) The concert folder of 15 or more pieces for the instrument and part of your choice.
- 2) A playlist and practice session tip sheet.
- 3) An emailed list of links to the recorded versions for listening and playing along.
- 4) Membership on our email list for the specific concert folder so that you will be contacted if there are future updates or tip-sheet information to be shared.

Each concert folder will contain an exciting collection of 15 or more varied pieces that would make up a crowd-pleasing concert.

The folders sell for $30 each and its all yours to keep. The music is all new or used originals, no illegal copies.

This is NOT a high-tech effort in any way. It is designed to be just like preparation for a concert; lots of practicing your parts on your own, then occasionally playing along with the online recordings, in place of the weekly rehearsal.
